

2009 Chateau Armandiereproduct-pdf - Diamant Rouge Cahors - 2009 Cahors Malbec! FANTASTIC DEAL! Not for the Shy!

Why We're Drinking It

Cahors Malbec needs to be added to your repertoire of delicious wines to be enjoyed with everynight dinners! It has been over two centuries since the Bouyssou family started to produce wines in this historically wine prevalent region. A family that started off as sailors transitioned into the wine industry back in the 1750's. Cahors suffered a lot of setbacks (phylloxera, frost and floods) but due to economic growth and the AOC classification, they have been producing quality malbec.

A must for Francophiles! This wine offers a glimpse of kirsch and chery with balanced notes of oak, and is a rustic, big wine with great spice and tannins that leave a tingle on your lips. Ready to drink now and has had a chance to settle in the bottle. This is a historic wine with a veil of mystery, you must need to take a sip and see why!

Ratings

Decanter World Wine Awards, 91 points

"Black fruit nose with hints of ginger spice and pure elder and sloe. The dense, searching palate is lifted by rich black fruits with slight marzipan, supported by ripe, sumptuous tannins. Very serious."
